

Lauren Hairrell

Lauren Hairrell serves as Woodlake Medical Management's Solution Development and Client Service Specialist.

Ms. Hairrell is a graduate of Northeastern Illinois University. With an extensive professional background in client service, business development, and marketing in a wide range of industries, Lauren currently assists businesses with the management of their workers' compensation claims by addressing their IME and records review needs. Her passion for helping others and delivering superior client service led her to Woodlake, where she's been happily assisting clients for 3 years now. In her free time, she enjoys travel, reading, cooking, and all things outdoors, including camping, hiking, biking, and fishing.
